Advertisement:

We will advertise in local papers, the library's website & social media sites. All advertisements will include general information. We suggest taking out your own ad if you want to advertise specifics about your participation in this event.

This event will be held indoors however if it's a nice day, there will be room outside for a few vendors. If you are interested in setting up outside, please let Aaron know. Due to limited parking at the library, once you unload your vehicle, you will be directed to park in a lot adjoining the baseball field behind the library. All fees are non-refundable. Each vendor is responsible for collecting and reporting Sales Tax.

Thank you for your support!
